

Publication in ISI and Scopus indexed journals

Publication period from January 1, 2022 – March 31, 2023

The RDLIP Publication grant of NRCP provides financial support for the publication of research papers in journals that are indexed by SCOPUS, Clarivate, or Thomson Reuters. All NRCP Members are encouraged to apply for this grant. Preference is given to new members of NRCP, those who come from new partner institutions, and up-and-coming researchers, especially those who are in the process of developing and establishing their professional career in research. The review process is merit-based.
